Metro's 7th Heaven: Metro taps what's hot right now

1 Flashpoint

TV Look at what American success can do. The Canadian cop drama, which has seen good ratings on CTV and CBS, picked up a record 19 Gemini nominations this week. Starring Enrico Colantoni and Hugh Dillon, the show revolves around an elite unit who come into play when crime situations get too hot to handle for the regular police force.

2 Humbug: Arctic Monkeys

ALBUM The Fluorescent Adolescents who became a sensation when their debut record became the fastest selling British album of all time are now brooding 20-somethings, and their third outing reflects that growing cynicism. Thankfully, singer Alex Turner's a genuine rock poet, recording all kinds of human nuances in their songs, as evident from standout tracks Crying Lightning and Cornerstone.

3 Taking Woodstock

FILM Brokeback Mountain director Ang Lee returns to his comic roots with this light-hearted take on the counter-culture phenomenon, which incidentally turned 40 this year. The music takes a backseat as the film focuses on the quaint people who played host to the world's greatest three-day party.

4 State of Play

DVD Starring Russell Crowe and Rachel McAdams as hard-boiled reporters, the film remake of the acclaimed British TV series makes a strong case against dwindling newsrooms. The lead pair tries to piece together the puzzle behind a woman's apparent suicide and opens up a whole new can of political worms. As taut as a thriller gets.

5 Snow Leopard

SOFTWARE Watch out Windows 7, the cat's on the prowl. The latest version of the Mac operating system ships out today and techies are getting ready for a showdown with Microsoft's upcoming follow-up to Vista. This time, Apple has its work cut out though as there has been a lot of positive press about Windows 7 in the last few months.

6 Jiminy Glick meets Ronald McDonald

VIDEO What happens when a demented Ronald McDonald sits down with one of television's strangest interviewers? The viewers of Will Ferrell's FunnyorDie.com site are finding out, thanks to a bizarre PETA video featuring Martin Short as his Jiminy Glick character grilling a "fried" Ronald McDonald (Andy Dick) about the fast food company's slaughter practices.

7 Oshawa

CITY This week, the little town outside Toronto got plenty of love – sealed with a Kiss. Front man Gene Simmons confirmed that his band will visit Oshawa after all for a fall show.
